

1. Four tourists are writing comments on a travel website about their hot-air balloon ride in Cappadocia:

Ali: Riding a hot-air balloon at sunrise to watch the fairy chimneys was a fascinating and impressive experience.

Elif: I think the balloon ride is too expensive and boring. You just stand in a basket for an hour. It is not exciting.

Yiğit: It was a wonderful journey. Floating gently in the sky and watching the scenery was extremely relaxing.

Sümeyye: The balloon ride was highly disappointing to me. It was too cold in the air and I was very scared of heights.

According to the comments above, who says something negative about the hot-air balloon ride?

- A) Elif and Sümeyye
B) Elif and Yiğit
C) Ali and Sümeyye
D) Ali and Yiğit

2. You and your friend want to try an extreme sport together. Your friend suggests trying bungee jumping or caving, but you are afraid of heights and dark, closed places under the ground. So, you want to decline these offers and suggest a safer water sport instead.

According to the information above, which of the following statements or questions can you NOT say or ask to your friend?

- A) I can't stand being high up or in caves. What about going canoeing?
B) I would rather stay at home than try these. Can we watch a film instead?
C) To me, they are too risky and dangerous. Would you like to go rafting with me?
D) I prefer relaxing activities to extreme sports. Shall we try a safe water sport?

3.

Aybüke: Hi, I'm Aybüke. I'm an adrenaline seeker and I love taking risks. I prefer air sports to other activities because floating in the sky is fascinating. I went paragliding in Fethiye last summer and it was impressive. This year, I want to try bungee jumping because I'd like to experience the excitement of falling down from a very high bridge. I believe pushing my limits makes me feel alive!

Which of the following questions does NOT have an answer in Aybüke's speech above?
