LGS PRACTICE TEST

1. Dila and her friends are talking about the responsibilities of their family members.

Dila: Hi everyone! Do you think your family members share the chores at home? Who is in charge of the laundry?

Gökalp: In our family, everybody must follow the rules. My father always does the shopping and helps my mother with the cooking.

Dila: My mother is always busy doing chores. She does the laundry, but my brother and I help her to make life easier.

Şefika: We don't mind doing chores. My brother, Yiğit, takes out the rubbish, and my dad washes the clothes every weekend.

Onat: To me, family members should share tasks. My sister, Buğlem, is responsible for washing the dishes and keeping our room tidy.

According to the conversation above, whose father helps with laundry or cooking?

- A) Gökalp and Şefika
B) Dila and Onat
C) Gökalp and Onat
D) Dila and Şefika

2. You share a bedroom with your brother, but he always annoys you. You love keeping your room tidy and organized, but he never helps you with any tasks. You want to talk to him nicely without complaining to your parents and remind him about his family obligations.

According to the information above, which of the following questions can you NOT ask your brother?

- A) What are you responsible for doing in our bedroom?
B) Why don't we tell our mum that you never help me?
C) Can you please follow the rules to make life easier?
D) Don't you think family members should be respectful?

3. Read Sümeyye's speech below and answer the question.

Hi, I'm Sümeyye. This weekend, my mother is going to London to visit her parents. She prepared a to-do list for my brother, Ali, and me. I don't mind helping my parents, but I really dislike doing the laundry. So, I am in charge of washing the dishes and setting the table. Ali is responsible for mopping the kitchen floor and dusting the furniture. We must finish all our tasks before our mother leaves on Saturday morning.

Which of the following questions does NOT have an answer in Sümeyye's speech above?

- A) Why is Sümeyye's mother going to London?
B) How many chores is Sümeyye responsible for doing?
C) When must they complete all the household tasks?
D) Who is in charge of washing the dirty clothes?

7. A reporter asks four teenagers about their opinions on household chores.

Yelin: I think family members should always share the responsibilities. Doing the laundry and washing the dishes are my favourite chores. Helping my parents makes me feel very happy.

Osman: In our family, we have to follow the rules. Mopping the floor and dusting the furniture are my duties. To be honest, I think housework is very boring and difficult, but it makes our life easier.

Murat: My brother and I always get angry when our mother tells us to tidy up our room. Doing chores is a big waste of time and it is completely annoying.

Aybüke: To me, showing respect is important for a peaceful life. Young people should be respectful to elders and always do their duties on time.

Which of the teenagers above says something both positive and negative about household chores?

- A) Yelin
C) Murat
B) Osman
D) Aybüke

8. Read the text below and answer the question.

In the past, keeping carpets clean and tidy was a very difficult chore. People carried heavy carpets outside and beat them to remove the dust. In 1901, an English engineer called Hubert Cecil Booth invented the first motorized vacuum cleaner. His machine was very big, so it stayed outside on the street, and workers used long hoses through the windows to vacuum the floors. Later, a company developed smaller versions for homes. Thanks to his invention, indoor cleaning became very easy.

Which of the following questions does NOT have an answer in the text above?

- A) Why did Hubert Cecil Booth decide to invent this machine?
B) How did people clean their carpets in the past?
C) Where did Booth's first big cleaning machine stay?
D) Who invented the first motorized vacuum cleaner?

9. Four teenagers are talking about the types of chores they are responsible for doing.

Sude: I am in charge of doing the shopping at the local market. I also take the dog for a walk around the neighbourhood and take the rubbish out to the bin every evening.

Murat: I am responsible for the indoor cleaning tasks. I have to take a bucket with soapy water to mop the kitchen floor and use an electric machine to vacuum the carpets.

Asya: To me, sharing kitchen chores is the best. I am responsible for setting the table before meals, washing the dirty dishes, and emptying the dishwasher.

Erva: I think outdoor chores are great fun. I like leaving the house to do the shopping and other outdoor chores or taking our pet for a walk around the neighbourhood.

According to the conversation above, which two people have similar chore type preferences?

- A) Sude and Asya
C) Sude and Erva
B) Murat and Asya
D) Murat and Erva

10. The Vural Family will share the household chores together. Mr Vural asked his family members about their chore preferences. Below are their answers:

Mother: I don't want to wash any dishes or set the table this weekend. I'd like to do some tasks outside the house.

Eylül: I don't want to be in the kitchen this weekend. I prefer walking the dog or doing the shopping.

Aynur: I'd rather take care of our household needs or pets than do any indoor cleaning tasks.

According to the conversation above, what should the Vural family do to share the chores happily?

- A) Focus on the kitchen responsibilities
B) Empty the dishwasher together
C) Share the indoor cleaning tasks
D) Choose outdoor chores and errands
